

MISSION

As the School of Applied Sciences, banking, financial services, international trade and logistics, the accounting and auditing sectors, researcher and entrepreneurial spirit, qualified staff and managers raise.

VISION

To be an academic unit contributing to the development and progress of our country and our region within the framework of understanding;

1. To provide contemporary, innovative, scientific and practical education and training to our students.
2. For the purpose of practice through education and training, laboratory practices and internships to enrich.
3. Education and training activities such as conferences, seminars and symposiums. activities with support.
4. Through student exchange programs in Turkey and abroad (Farabi, Erasmus, Mevlana), to contribute to students' opportunities to provide intercultural experience.
5. Strengthen the school-sector cooperation.
6. Social and cultural activities in parallel with the academic development of students support the development in the field.
7. Periodically whether the processes listed in the first six articles have been carried out control and reporting.